ORDER

Jamal Khan Mandokhail J.-

Crl.P.L.A.1022/2020

The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner is not challenging the judgment in its toto however, he is aggrieved only from the adverse remarks reflected in paragraph-19 of the impugned judgment. He further states that if these adverse remarks are expunged, the petitioner's grievance would be redressed and he would not press this petition. The other side showed no objection.

Thus in view of the above, the adverse remarks written by the learned Judge in paragraph-19 of the impugned judgment are expunged. Rest of the impugned judgment is maintained. Consequently, this petition is dismissed as not pressed.

Crl.M.A. 1030/2021 & 1031/2021

The main application is barred by 345 days. The application for condonation of the delay in filing of the main application does not disclose any plausible ground for its condonation. Consequently, both the applications are dismissed.
