ORDER

Ayesha A. Malik, J: We have heard the learned counsel at length and note that no ground for interference is made out. The absence from duty is a matter of record and in terms of the law settled by this Court in the case of Syed Zakir Ali¹ where wilful absence is an admitted fact no regular inquiry is required. Furthermore, this Court has held in the case of Tahira Waheed² that where a government servant is absent from duty without getting sanctioned leave, is absent at his own risk and is responsible for the consequences thereof. Even otherwise, we find no substantial question of law of public importance in terms of Article 212(3) of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 has arisen in these Petitions, warranting any interference by this
