ORDER

On 28.07.2017 when this matter in respect of action against officer BPS-17 and above, having patchy service record, serving under Establishment Division, Government of Pakistan as well as under Home Department, Government of Sindh came up before this Court it was ordered learned DAG, to ensure that the exercise is completed and report thereof is furnished to this Court within four weeks time. Mr. Aslam Butt learned DAG state that on 31.7.2017, he conveyed such directions to the Secretary Establishment Division but till date he has received no reply.

2. Mr. Aslam Butt, learned DAG states that pursuant to various orders including dated 6.7.2017 and directions of this Court action against the Officers in BS-17 and above was required to be taken by the Home Secretary/Chief Secretary/Chief Minister and Establishment Division respectively. Incomplete report was placed on record. No progress in the matter is made, at least learned DAG is not made aware of the same. Accordingly, let Secretary Establishment, Government of Pakistan appear in person on the next date at his own expense and subject to cost of Rs.50,000/- to be deposited with Edhi Foundation within two weeks.

3. Likewise when learned Additional Advocate General, Sindh was enquired about action taken against 22 officers in B-17 and above by Competent Authority in Home Department/Chief Secretary/Chief Minister as noted by this Court vide order dated 6.7.2017 and dated 28.7.2017. Learned Additional Advocate General is not aware of any further action or progress in the matter, he requests time. We are not satisfied by such conduct. Accordingly, let Secretary Home, appear in person and explain on next date. Secretary Home to also pay cost of Rupees 50,000/- to be deposited with Edhi Foundation within 10 days. The report to be placed by Secretary Establishment Division and Home Secretary within two weeks on record. If no report is placed, defiance of the order would be treated as undermining the authority of the Court and will be proceeded accordingly. Adjourned.
