ORDER

Irfan Saadat Khan, J.- In the instant matter, an appeal was preferred by Pakistan State Oil Company Limited ('PSO') against the order passed by the High Court dated 01.06.2017, which was maintained by this Court vide order dated 08.12.2017. Thereafter, since compliance of the order dated 08.12.2017 was allegedly not made by the PSO, a contempt application was filed by the petitioner Amanullah Tamimy before this Court, which matter was disposed of on 20.05.2021 with the directions to the PSO to issue notice to the petitioner Amanullah Tamimy and after hearing the petitioner decide the fate of his matter in accordance with the law. Thereafter, as per Mr. Asim Iqbal, ASC, the matter was taken up by the PSO and vide order dated 15.10.2021 the same was disposed of.

2. Syed Shoa-un-Nabi, ASC, who is present along with petitioner Amanullah Tamimy, stated that at no point in time the said order was ever communicated to the petitioner and the order dated 15.10.2021 was decided on some extraneous considerations.

3. We have heard both the learned counsel for the parties at some length and have perused the record. In the interest of justice, we direct Mr. Asim Iqbal, counsel for the respondents, to officially serve the said order of 15.10.2021 upon the petitioner who would then be at liberty to agitate the same, if so advised, in accordance with the law. The Court before ^{whom} him, if any appeal is preferred, would consider the point of limitation involved in the instant matter in a sympathetic and pedantic manner.

4. With these observations the instant matter stands disposed of with the consent of the parties.
