ORDER

This dispute in fact is between the petitioner and his father in law on the allegation that the petitioner hit the firearm injury to his brother in law. The petitioner, however, submits that his marriage with the daughter of the complainant is still intact and out of the wedlock there are two children but at present his wife is living with the complainant, Muhammad Khan. The learned counsel for the complainant submits that the petitioner never approached the complaint for compromise and if will approach, the complainant may consider it. The learned counsel for the parties request for time to make an attempt for some amicable solution. The learned Additional Prosecutor General Sindh will also assist the Court on the next date and call the I.O. if no compromise is reached so that the matter shall proceed on merits. To come up for hearing in the next session. Ad-interim bail already granted shall continue till the next date of hearing.
