ORDER

Gulzar Ahmed, J:- Committee constituted by this Court's order dated 17.07.2013, has submitted its Report No.85/2017, which is taken on the record. Para Nos. 5 & 6 of the said report shows that entries in VFs-VII-A and VFs-VII-B were remanded by the committee to Board of Revenue for verification from Deputy Commissioner concerned. Whether such verification has been made by the Deputy Commissioners concerned is not available on the record. Further, it is also mentioned that in VFs-II there are some fraudulent entries and such have also been referred to the relevant Board of Revenue and respective Deputy Commissioners but report in this respect too has not been received. Learned Advocate General Sindh states that report will be called before the next date of hearing.

2. Mr. Nazar Muhammad Leghari, Consultant Board of Revenue informed that such reports are to be received from Thatta, Dadu, Tando Muhammad Khan, Jamshoro, Qambar Shahdatkot. Let such reports be made available to the Court within a period of one month.

3. It has also been reported that Survey Office Karachi was burnt during the same eventuality as reflected in the order dated 17.07.2013. Learned Advocate General Sindh states that he will obtain report regarding Survey Office Karachi and as to what steps have been taken by the Survey Superintendent, Karachi for reconstruction of its record and what is its present status. The Survey Superintendent, Karachi is directed to appear before the Court on next date alongwith his report in this respect. Adjourned to a date to be fixed after one month.
