ORDER

Aamer Farooq, J.- The petitioner seeks leave to appeal against the decision of Lahore High Court, Lahore dated 10.03.2017 in C.R. No.777/2011.

2. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner was confronted with the fact that instant appeal is barred by limitation and in this regard, report of the Office shows that appeal is barred by 132 days, learned counsel was at a loss and could not advert to the circumstances which prevented the appellant in filing instant appeal timely.

3. Heard.

4. It is trite law that where a petition/appeal is barred by limitation, delay of each and every day has to be explained. The examination of application for condonation of delay shows that delay of each and every day has not been explained and a vague attempt has been made to justify the delay. In view of above, CMA No.1687/2017, seeking condonation of delay, is dismissed. Since the referred application seeking condonation of delay stands dismissed, consequently appeal is also dismissed as barred by limitation.
