MR. JUSTICE SAJJAD ALI SHAH

CRIMINAL ORIGINAL PETITION NO.3-K OF 2021 IN CIVIL PETITION NO.17-K OF 2017

Khalid Siddiqui

...Petitioner(s)

VERSUS

Kamran Ali Afzal & others

...Respondent(s)

For the Petitioner(s): In-person.

For the Respondent(s): N.R.

Date of Hearing: 30.07.2021

ORDER

The petitioner claims his proforma promotion from BPS-19 to BPS-20 in terms of FR-17 and Part-IV Clause 6(a)(i) of the Revised Guidelines for the FR-17(1) on the ground, inter alia, that he was due for promotion before his retirement but before it could be considered by the CSB, he has been retired. He urged that when this matter came up for hearing before this Court in Civil Petition No.17-K/2019 on 22.12.2017, it was observed that he deserves to be considered for promotion by the CSB in accordance with law and the matter was disposed of.

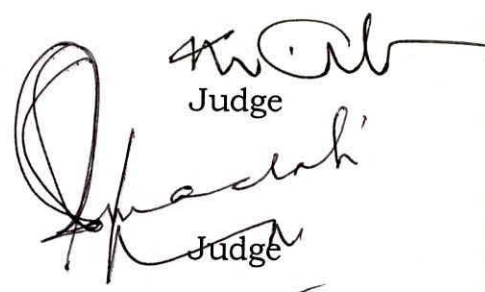

2. It appears that on such observation of the Court, he made a departmental representation to the Ministry of Planning Development and Special Initiatives Division and on his representation and in view of order dated 22.12.2017, proforma promotion was recommended by the Ministry of Planning, Development and Reform, Pakistan Bureau of Statics on 19.08.2019 and the matter was sent to be placed before the Junior Level Committee on FR-17 of the Finance Division (available at Page-27).

3. Petitioner, present in-person, states that despite such recommendations, the case of the petitioner has not been finalized and notification has not been issued, due to which he has been deprived of substantial monetary benefits, to which he otherwise is entitled. Let notice be issued to the Deputy Attorney General. Re-list in the next session.
