ORDER

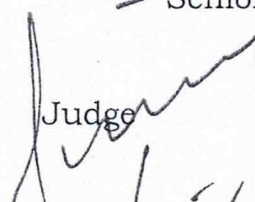

Learned Additional Attorney General for Pakistan states that the process of bidding was started on the basis of last order passed by this

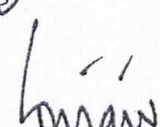

Court and due to unavoidable circumstances in the country, the matter could not be finalized and the date has been extended till July this year.

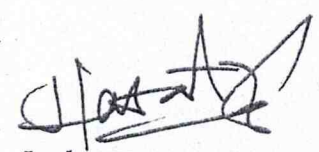

2. On the other hand, the Auditor has submitted draft report and M/s Mainland Husnain Pakistan Limited is not making the payment to the auditors as per the order passed by this Court and as per the report of the Auditor 167 Million of the Punjab Revenue Authority has not been paid till date. The report has been placed on the record. Final report shall be submitted after the final determination of the sales tax. Previous orders with regard to the payment to the Auditors shall be complied with before the next date of hearing.

3. Learned counsel representing MHPL shall respond to the above questions on the next date. Office to fix this matter soon after the summer vacations.
