ORDER

Athar Minallah, J.- The petitioner has sought leave against the order of the High Court dated 19.11.2024, whereby the order passed by the learned Magistrate was maintained. The learned counsel for the petitioner has been heard at great length; however, he has not been able to point out any legal infirmity requiring interference with the concurrent findings of two competent Courts. Moreover, the learned counsel has also not been able to persuade us that a question of law has arisen for consideration of this Court. In the circumstances, no case for grant of leave is made out. Leave is, therefore, refused, and consequently, the petition is dismissed.
