ORDER

Munib Akhtar, J. – This is an appeal against the order of remand made by the learned High Court, sending the matter back to the learned appellate Court. The order of the learned High Court was made on 19.11.2018. On a query from the Court, learned counsel for the appellant states that his instructions are that the said appeal is still pending adjudication before the learned appellate Court.

In these circumstances, learned counsel for the appellant graciously does not press this appeal, but seeks an appropriate direction to the learned appellate Court. Let that Court after notice to the parties decide the appeal pending before it in terms of the impugned order of the learned High Court within a period of three months positively from the date of which a certified copy of this order is placed before it. Same may be done by any of the party.
