The learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that respondents Muhammad Jaleel and Aziz Ullah in Criminal Petition No.90-K/2024 did not appear before the trial court and, therefore, proceedings have been initiated against them. He has contended that the aforementioned respondents have misused the concession of bail and therefore, their bails granted by the High Court ought to be recalled. However, he has sought time to further assist us in the matter. The respondent in the connected petition (Crl.P.99-K/2024) is present and has sought an adjournment because his counsel is not available today.
