ORDER

Athar Minallah, J.:- The petitioner has sought leave against the order dated 27.08.2024 of the High Court, whereby his Revision Application was dismissed on the ground of maintainability.

2. The learned ASC for the petitioner has, inter alia, contended that the High Court fell in error by misinterpreting section 8-A of the Illegal Dispossession Act, 2005. He has further argued that the above provision does not contemplate an appeal against acquittal. On the question of application seeking condonation of delay, learned ASC has referred to the recently notified rules of this Court and has argued that since they are procedural in nature, therefore, the same would also be effective in the present case. We expect that the learned ASC will further assist the Court regarding his contentions raised today. Let notice be issued to the respondents. Adjourned.
