ORDER

1. Heard the learned Advocate General Sindh. For the reasons set out in the Review Petition No. 41-K of 2016, prayer made therein is granted and order dated 28.07.2016 is reviewed in terms thereof. The concerned official is directed to incorporate such correction in the record.
2. Reports submitted by the Chief Secretary, Government of Sindh in the form of Books No. A and B and the Reports submitted by the I.G. Police are taken on record, which will be considered on the next date of hearing.
3. So far as the other dimensions of these proceedings are concerned, we expect that at their own initiatives, the concerned quarters will ensure implementation of directions contained in the judgment of this Court in law and order situation Karachi, case reported as Watan Party and another vs. Federation of Pakistan & others (PLD 2011 SC 997).
4. Mr. Ashtar Ali Ausaf learned Attorney General for Pakistan has apprised about the steps taken by the Federal Government to make sure that all possible facilities are provided to the Government of Sindh to improve working in the Police Department and to equip them with latest technology, which may be beneficial for their effective working. We expect that positive role will be played by the Federal Agencies in this regard with fullest cooperation with the Sindh Government.

5. The learned Attorney General has requested for time to submit detailed report as regards four officers against whom this Court has earlier ordered enquiry. Such request is also acceded to. The hearing of this case is now adjourned to a date after Summer Vacations 2016.
