However, it is expedient to clarify that as far as the above restraint order is concerned, it shall be applicable only to the extent of the State land only. As far as the state property which is required for the purposes of utilization by the State itself etc. is concerned the revenue authorities shall be free to enter the transaction/mutation etc. in the record of rights as usual. However, for further clarification he would approach the department for passing the appropriate orders. C.M.A. stands disposed of."
