ORDER

In compliance of our order dated 25.11.2021, reports have been submitted on behalf of Government of Sind as well as Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, which have been perused and placed on record. Learned Additional Advocate General Sindh as well as learned Additional Advocate General KPK submit that in compliance of orders, various encroachments have removed and the operation for removing the encroachments is continued and if a period of three months is allowed, they will submit a fresh report showing removal of all encroachments from the stated places. Three months time is accordingly granted. All the concerned are directed to remove the encroachments on the stated places within the given time and submit their respective fresh compliance reports. To come up for hearing after three months.
